Gang of Italian rum runners which, during 1926, skirmished with the gang headed by DION O'BANION. NUCCIO, along with VINCENT DUCCI, EARL WEISS and GEORGE "BUGS" MORAN, banded together to exterminate the Capone Mob and on 9-22-26 they machine gunned the headquarters of the Capone gang at the Anton and Hawthorn Hotels in Cicero. One of the cars used in this skirmish was registered to JOSEPHINE NUCCIO, wife of DOMINICK NUCCIO. By 1931 NUCCIO was absorbed into the Capone organization. NUCCIO, along with DOMINICK BRANCATO and DOMINICK DI BELLA, were considered suspects in the killing of LAWRENCE "DAGO" LANGANO during August, 1944. He is also believed to have been implicated in the gang killing of VINCENT BENEVENTO and NICK DE JOHN. During July, 1949, NUCCIO was released by the Syndicate from control of gambling on the North Side and was replaced by JOHN MACK. The "3 Dons" have now taken over control of gambling in the 28th Police District commanded by Captain THOMAS KELLY and are presently operating from NUCCIO's room, (room 602, North Park Hotel, 1926 North Clark Street, Chicago). NUCCIO also has interests at the Rip Tide Cocktail Lounge, 925 North Rush.

92-727-24 p.17,18

Chicago report dated 10-14-59 by SA VINCENT L. INSERRA entitled "ROSS PRIO, Aka." reflects the following information.

Records of the Chicago Crime Commission reflected that on 6-19-29, at Chicago, ROSS PRIO was arrested with one [redacted] and DOMINICK NUCCIO for investigation. b6 b7C

The records of the Chicago Crime Commission also reflected that in ROSS PRIO's organization are old standbys such as the "Three Dons", DOMINIC NUCCIO, DOMINIC BRANCATO, and DOMINIC DE BELLO.

62-1919-81

This reference reflects that DOMINICK NUCCIO, was arrested on 9-6-33 on "General Principles". NUCCIO was described as age 37, white, male, short (up to 5'6"), brown hair, brown eyes, 2 small brown moles outer corner left eye, and 1 small mole left cheek. The arrest number was C-37593.

7-660-1602 p.21

Chicago report dated 7-9-56 by SA HOWARD A. CARLSON captioned "RALPH CALECA, was. Fugitive; JEROME MC DONALD - Victim" sets forth the following information.

WILLIAM LAWLER, retired from the Chicago Police Department and now head house officer at the La Salle Hotel was interviewed on 6-20-56, at which time he stated that RALPH CALECA was arrested in the evening about 10:30 or 11:00 pm, along with his associates. (This was on 3-3-37.) He said that he believes SAM ORLANDO was now dead but that DOMINIC BRANCATO was now a top-flight hoodlum and was one of the Three Doms (BRANCATO, DI BELLO and DOMINIC NUCCIO) still operating in the Division and Clark Street area and other parts of Chicago. LAWLER was of the opinion that BRANCATO would be extremely uncooperative in view of his hoodlum activities.

Chicago report dated 3-9-62 by SA [redacted] entitled "EDWARD DAVID VOGEL, Aka" [redacted] reflects that on 8-8-46 records of the Chicago Crime Commission were checked concerning VOGEL and the following information was developed. b6 b7C

On 9-8-43, the Chicago Crime Commission received an anonymous letter stating that "The Dome", a large gambling room at 7466 West Irving Park Boulevard, Chicago, was run by ED VOGEL. It was indicated that VOGEL had pushed "LIBBY" out and that the place was under the protection of the Sheriff. VOGEL was also supposed to have a place called "The Wagon Wheel" located at Narragansett and Melrose Avenues. According to the Chicago Crime Commission, the "LIBBY" referred to was probably ERCOLI LIBERATORE, also known as DOMINICK NUCCIO, who was reported to be a member of the alleged Chicago "syndicate".

62-3254-32

The "Chicago Daily News" dated 8-12-44 contained an article captioned "3 Dominics Are Cleared in Mangano Probe".

The article stated that the police were looking for new leads into the slaying of LAWRENCE "DAGO" MANGANO, after their investigation into activities of the "3 Dominics" fizzled completely.

The last of the trio, DOMINIC BELLO satisfied [redacted] of the Maxwell Street Police that he had nothing to do with the shooting. b6 b7C

DOMINIC NUCCIO and DOMINIC BRANCATO, North Side hoodlums, were released earlier.

62-3255-359

The "Chicago Daily Tribune" dated 3-22-45 contained an article captioned "Free Reputed Capone Aid and 11 in Disorderly Case".

This article stated that Judge FRANCIS BORRELLI dismissed disorderly conduct charges against DOMINICK NUCCIO, 39, of 1936 North Clark Street, reputedly a former Capone gangster and 11 others seized in a raid at 1006 Larrabee Street on March 11 by police from Commissioner ALLMAN's office.

62-3375-353 p.97

The General Crime Survey, Chicago Division for the period 10-15-45 through 4-15-45 sets forth the following information under the caption "Hoodlum Hangouts".

Innuendo Club, 1220 North Clark Street, owned by DOMINICK NUCCIO and used as headquarters for his gambling activities.

87-1022-430 p.2

Chicago report dated 8-26-46 by SA PHILIP C. DUNNE entitled [redacted] was. - Fugitive" reflects the following. b6 b7C

This report mentions that the Innuendo Lounge, 1220 North Clark Street, Chicago, is operated by DOMINIC NUCCIO, also known as "LIBBY" NUCCIO. NUCCIO is reported to be the gambling boss of North Clark Street and the Innuendo Lounge is a known hang-out for hoodlums and gamblers in Chicago, Illinois.

The "Chicago Daily News" dated 7-27-48 contains an article entitled "Brancato Released on Bond".

The article states that DOMINIC BRANCATO, 42, hoodlum questioned in the slaying of DOWARD FALCON, a Navy veteran, faced charges of vagrancy and disorderly conduct in Chicago Avenue Police Court. He was released on $200 bond.

BRANCATO, pal of DOMINIC "LIBBY" NUCCIO, Northside gambling boss, declined to take a lie test. Eight persons failed to identify him in a showup.

FALCON, 24, was shot to death July 10 in front of his home at 1837 Lincoln Avenue three days before a trial for attempted rape of NUCCIO's wife.

62-3517-84

The "Chicago Daily News", Turf Edition, dated 5-16-50, p.1, col. 4 contained an article captioned "Grand Jury Hears 6 More Policemen".

The article stated that six more patrolmen from the Chicago Avenue Station go before the Grand Jury to say whether they know anything about graft collections.

At its Monday session the jury heard three deny that they knew anything about the activities of the "3 Doms", DOMINIC "NAGS" BRANCATO, DOMINIC DI BELLO and DOMINIC "LIBBY" NUCCIO.

The Doms are gambling syndicate gangsters on the North Side of Chicago.

62-3517-86 p.2

The "Chicago Daily Sun-Times" dated 5-18-50, p.3, col. 5, three star edition contained an article captioned "Prendergast Replacement is Demanded".

The article reflected that the battle between the Chicago Crime Commission and Mayor KENNELLY over alleged police corruption flared anew with a demand that Police Commissioner PRENDERGAST clean up his force or resign.

The grand jury investigating the commission's charges of graft and vice in the Chicago Avenue Police District summoned more witnesses. It issued subpoenas for "The Three Doms", named as gambling overlords of the Near North Side in the civic group's last report.

The "Three Doms" summoned by the grand jury are DOMINICK (BELLS) DE BELLO, DOMINIC (LIBBY) NUCCIO and DOMINIC (NAGS) BRANCATO.

The jurors apparently believed the "Doms" might shed some light on the commission's charge that the underworld buys protection from police and politicians at the rate of about a million dollars a year in the Chicago Avenue Police District.

There was little indication that subpoena servers would find "The Doms".

62-3375-1910 p.16,18,60,92

The General Crime Survey, Chicago Division for the period 4-15-50 to 7-15-60 lists DOMINICK NUCCIO, wa. "Libby" under the caption "Individual Racketeers and Mobsters".

This Survey contains other information regarding DOMINICK NUCCIO that has been previously set forth.

62-3522-61

Chicago memo dated 7-13-50 by SA WILLIAM M. O'BRIEN entitled "Windsor Lounge, 1220 North Clark Street" reflects as follows:

[redacted] (confidential) personally appeared at the Chicago Office on 7-6-50 to furnish information concerning JOHN BORCIA, and incidentially furnished the following information relative to the Windsor Lounge.

b7D

The license for the Lounge is taken out in the name of the bartender, FRANK SANTINI, although it is really operated by JOHN BORCIA, a syndicate member who cannot get a liquor license because of his criminal record.

DOMINIC NUCCIO, who uses the name LIBBY,

is a sort of silent partner in the Windsor Lounge and operates as a bookie in the rear of the tavern. [redacted] stated that the place is frequented by the hoodlum element.

b6
b7C
b7D

62-3375-1910A p.46,57

The General Crime Survey, Photographic Supplement, Chicago Division, dated 7-15-50 lists DOMINICK NUCCIO as a member of the infamous "Three Doms" composed of DOMINICK NUCCIO, DOMINICK DI BELLO and DOMINICK BRANCATO.

62-3375-2134

The "Chicago Daily News", Turf Edition, dated 3-21-51, p.12, col. 1, contained an article captioned "46 Chicago Hoods on Tax Study List".

The article stated that 46 Chicagoans are among 126 "alleged prominent underworld figures" whose income-tax returns will be given a special going over by the Internal Revenue Bureau.

The list was released by Rep. KING (D., Calif.), chairman of a special House Ways and Means Subcommittee digging into the tax returns of gamblers and racketeers.

Among those listed was DOMINIC NUCCIO, a strong-arm man for the syndicate.

62-3375-2146

The "Chicago Tribune", dated 3-21-51 contained an article captioned "Names Chicago Gangsters Who Face Tax Quiz" -- "Government Lists 126 on Underworld Roster". This article contained the same information that has been set out in above reference.

62-3375-2191 p.4

The "Chicago Daily Tribune", three star sports final edition, dated 6-9-51, p.4, col. 3, part I, contained an article captioned "List Hoodlum Tax Targets in Federal Probe" -- "Racketeers Revealed as Under Scrutiny".

This article contained the same information that has been set out in 62-3375-2134.

The article lists DOMINICK NUCCIO, 1936 North Clark Street, and 1817 North Clark Street -- North Side hoodlum and gambler -- one of the "3 Doms".

92-372-17 p.6

Chicago report dated 1-9-58 by SA AUGUST C. KEMPFF entitled "JAMES ALLEGRETTI" states that a "Chicago Tribune" article dated June 9, 1951 names DOMINIC NUCCIO as an associate of ALLEGRETTI's.

94-519-236 p.3

A Chicago Police Department report dated 12-7-54 reflects that in 1952 it was alleged that JIMMY ALLEGRETTI was a partner with [redacted] JOEY CAESAR and DOMINICK NUCCIO in numerous night clubs in the 42nd ward of Chicago. b6 b7C

"Chicago Mob List Handed to Senators".

Washington -- Chicago police have tabbed 140 gangsters as suspected members of the murderous Cosa Nostra brotherhood, the Sun Times learned Sunday.

Intelligence Division detectives reported to the Committee that the North Side also had four men in the top of the mob.

They are ROSS PRIO, DOMINIC NUCCIO, DOMINIC DI BELLA, and DOMINIC BRANCATO.

Since the late 1940s, the Three DOMs have appeared in retiring roles in the North side rackets. Committee investigators said that the "DOMs" were listed at the top of the Chicago family as a result of a police surveillance, last year under a gang hangout near Niles.

March 15, 1968

Federal Bureau of Investigation
219 South Dearborn
Chicago, Illinois 60604

Dear Mr. Babb:

In about January or February of 1967 [redacted] whom I considered a friend as I had known him a number of years, happened to come in to The Arc. I confided in him that we were interested in purchasing the adjoining Glenview Motel property, which we would then convert into additional parking facilities. The owner at that time was [redacted] who was known to be difficult to deal with. Therefore, I asked [redacted] if he would be kind enough to make inquiries concerning the motel.. my thought being that if I would make personal inquiries the asking price of the property would probably be increased. I did specify at that time to [redacted] that I did not want to get involved with any real estate company, and that he should make only personal inquiries. b6 b7C

Two weeks later he brought in [redacted] of Gold Coast Realty Co., 206 Shermer Rd., Glenview. I protested to [redacted] that I had told him I did not want to get involved with any realty company! However, he persuaded me into believing that it would be better and easier to obtain the necessary information about the motel. They had found out that the asking price at that time was $90,000, but thought that this figure could be cut down. b6 b7C

A day or so later I called [redacted] Thinking that I should have an agreement with him in the event that we were to change our minds about purchasing the motel, I offered to pay him $250 for his trouble should the deal not go through. He agreed to this. b6 b7C

Two or three weeks later, about the end of February, both [redacted] met with [redacted] and myself at The Arc. [redacted] told us that the best and lowest price the motel could be purchased for was $84,000. He also said that he had to get his full commission or he would lose his liscense or rating with the Realty Board. With a laugh he added that he wanted to get a new Buick anyway! We told them that it would be best for us to think about this proposition for a few days. [redacted] advised us not to wait too long as he had another party who was considering purchasing the property. b6 b7C

However, after considerable thought and discussion between [redacted] and myself, we definitely decided that the price was too high for the purpose of a parking lot. Therefore, in a day or two, I called either [redacted] (I think it was [redacted] and told him our thoughts and that all three of us had definitely decided against purchasing it. However, should we change our mind we would get in touch. About three or four weeks later [redacted] stopped in at The Arc. I gave him the $250 in cash as per agreement. I understand that he did not share this with [redacted] b6 b7C with Judge Kazas, purchased the motel (April 4, 1967) just after our negotiations ended. About five or six months later I happened to meet, for the first time, the couple who were running the motel for Mrs. Slatis. They casually mentioned that if we were interested Mrs. Slatis would be glad to visit us. Thus it was that we began to negotiate with Mrs. Slatis. Her asking price was $80,000. (We have reason to believe that she paid only $63,000 for it). However, six to eight weeks later we agreed to pay $77,500. Our deal was finally settled January 19, 1968!

About two or three weeks later [redacted] called. He said that I owed him some money and that he had something to talk over with me. I tried to explain under what circumstances we purchased the motel and that I couldn't understand why he felt we owed him anything...since we had honestly backed away from purchasing it; also that it had been purchased in the interim by another party; and, in fact, he, one of his clients, or anyone else could have purchased it! He was unreasonable and said he would get what he had coming. b6 b7C

I called [redacted] told him what had transpired and to please get [redacted] off my back. Again I told [redacted] that we had definitely decided against the motel at the time we concluded negotiating. I also said that he or anyone else could have bought it, and that six months later, upon being approached by the new owner, we again became interested. [redacted] promised to call [redacted] b6 b7C

Two or three weeks later a former county police officer, who is now a car salesman, came in to The Arc. He told my brother that he understood that [redacted] has it in for us because we owe him some money. He said that he was only doing us a favor by giving us this tip, that he wouldn't like to see us get hurt! b6 b7C

The following day I called [redacted] again. I told him that we had heard [redacted] was threatening us. He said that he was sorry about this whole business,-that [redacted] had actually put in so much time gathering information which we were able to use later, that he was hard to reason with, and, that I had become "a victim of circumstance"! The truth is, we had discarded all previous information, having given up the idea of purchasing. Besides, all new information was obtained with or through Mrs. Slatis or the Glenview State Bank. b6 b7C

A week ago last Monday, February 26th, [redacted] called, and in partly screaming termshe, threatened that he would give me till Saturday, March 2nd, to pay, or else! I immediately called the F.B.I. and spoke to a Mr. Babb. After hearing a good portion of the story he said that untill there was more evidence the F.B.I. couldn't help. He suggested my calling the local or county police, or [redacted] of the Illinois Crime Commission. b6 b7C

I then called, and told the whole story to a friend, who has been a customer of ours for the last twenty years, and is now an agent for the Treasury Department. After relaying this information through his superior to the U.S. Attorney's office, he called back and said about the same thing the F.B.I. agent had said--more evidence of extortion is needed before they can enter the case!

However, through our friend we learned that the Gold Coast Realty Co. does not presently have [redacted] who was or is associated with the syndicate. [redacted] has had a minor police record dating from 1960 back to 1945. He is reported to be [redacted] Incidently, the Glenview State Bank has never heard of the Gold Coast Realty Co. and/or Gold Coast Insurance Co.

Last Monday, March 4th, being worried about this whole affair, I decided to call our attorney and find out what he would advise. He suggested that he personally call [redacted] We agreed that, if possible, to get him off our back, we would gladly be willing to pay him something for the time he did spend. An hour later the attorney called me back. He said he had spent forty-five minutes in trying to reason with this man, and actually did not get anywhere. However, he suggested that I wait a couple of days, hoping that by then [redacted] irrationalism would subside, and that then I call and invite him to The Arc to talk over our differences with the hopeful intention of reaching a settlement. b6 b7C

Wednesday, March 6th, I called [redacted] (Incidently, he is about [redacted] spoke to me in the same irrational manner, saying I'm wasting his time by having other people call, ending by again screaming that he won't see me untill I'm ready to pay all, - or else! and then he hung up. By "all" - he is demanding $4800. This, I think, he figures is the Realtor's commission on $84,000, which had been his asking price! However, eight months after he was out of the picture we bought the property for $77,500! b6 b7C

Friday, March 8th, I called [redacted] of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. After relating this story to him, I am following his good advice in writing this letter. Any new developments will also be added and filed with the proper authorities. b6 b7C
